

Courses presently being taught under the aegis of CBCS (Choice Based Credit System) framework introduced by the UGC (University Grant's Commission) in 2018 are:

- (i) 3 Year (6 semester) B.Sc. (Honours) course in Electronics (previously named Electronic Science)
- (ii) 3 Year (6 semester) B.Sc. (General) course in Electronics

Courses presently being taught under the aegis of the Curriculum and Credit Framework (CCF) of the New Education Policy (NEP), introduced from the session 2023-24 are:

- (i) 4-year (8 semester) Major course in Electronics with/without Research and with exit option
- (ii) 3-Year (6 semester) MDC multi disciplinary course with Electronics and with exit option
- (iii) One semester IDC interdisciplinary course named Fundamentals of Electronics
- (iv) One semester CVAC common value added course named Domestic Applications of Electronics

Students pursuing Electronics Honours or Major can also choose to have any one subject from Physics, Computer Science and Mathematics, as a secondary minor or general subject.